pedestrian himself has to be very careful as well as the driver of the automobile and what Senator Newell is doing, I think, was very commendable because it ties in to the amendments that we passed in '79 and there's really no need for them.

PRESIDENT: Senator Newell.

SENATOR NEWELL: (Mike not activated)...Wesely was particularly thorough in his explanation. Since the bill does, according to Senator Wesely, it is his intent to have it do what my amendment does, I withdraw it and it won't be necessary. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: The amendment is withdrawn.

CLERK: I have nothing further on the bill, Mr. President.
